The Dy Comm^r having brought to notice that the election meeting held by the Amildar, Chikmagalur Tk, without specifying in the notice the time at which the meeting would be held, was irregular, the election was invalidated as requested by the Dy Com^r & a fresh election ordered.

Paper under disposal

The Dy Comm^r now requests to be informed whether in the case of re-election one month's notice of the Election meeting to Voters is necessary & whether persons who had not notified their willingness to stand for election as L. B. members before may now permitted to do so without adhering to the time limit prescribed by the Rules.

Rule 2^x requires that one month's notice of the Election meeting should be given to Voters.

Rule 6^x requires that eligible persons should notify their candidature to the Amildar in writing at least one month before the Election meeting for local publication to Voters.

None of these conditions can now be observed without seriously dislocating current year's Dasara work, as the date fixed for the Election meeting - viz. 5^th July 1915 has already expired to Dy Comm^r and the date for submission of D.R. & subjects is the 16^th July 1915 - tomorrow.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that on the 5th instant, a meeting of voters for the election of members from the Chikmagalur Taluk to the ensuing Legislative Representative Assembly was convened at the Chikmagalur Taluk office, presided over by the Sheristadar of the Taluk and the meeting was closed at 3 P.M. and the names of the four elected members announced on that day. Subsequently, some of the voters on whom whom notices had been served turned up at the Taluk Office after 3 P.M and found to their disappointment that the meeting had been closed. Con-sequently 5 of them have complained to me of the early closure of the meeting and of the non-intimation to them of the exact time of the meeting pray that a re-election may be ordered The Amildar explains that as the polling was completed at 3 P.M. and that as the voters present requested him that the meeting might be closed he did so. The notice issued by the Amildar did not mention any specified time for this meeting and as such it must be presumed that the polling would last during the usual office hours i.e. from 11 A.M. to 5 P.M. As this has not been done in the present case, I request that the present election may be declared declared invalid and a re-election ordered.

I request early orders fixing the case in the matter and intimate to me [illegible], for wire, as the time for the action is very short. Copy of the writ issued by the Election Officer is forwarded herewith for reference.

Sir,

With reference to your telegram of the 12th instant, requiring me to start Proceedings for the reelection of members for the Representative Assembly by the Chikmagalur Taluk, I have the honor to invite your kind reference to Government Order No. 3439-46/M.F. 99-93 dated 26th August 1901, in which it is stated that the 2nd election held at Hosadurga was irregular in as much as one month's notice was not given for the 2nd election meeting. In the election rules, I find that one month's notice is prescribed only for the election, but if, now, a month's notice has again to be given for the reelection of members by the Chikmagalur Taluk, the submission of subjects to be discussed will be delayed consiconsiderably. The meeting for the subjects is fixed for the 30th July as per Dasara Calendar. I beg to know whether the Chimagalur Taluk subjects may be scrutinized by me without holding a meeting separately for their discussion. Another point upon which I beg the orders of Government is, whether new candidates may be allowed to stand for election at this 2nd meeting. The rules issued in the matter are silent as regards new candidates being allowed to stand for election at a reelection. In this case, if such new members have also to give a month's notice of their intention to stand for election, the election will be delayed still longer. I ask this question because under certain circumstances when only a limited number of persons had offered themselves for election, the Taluk, as a whole, may go unrepresented if no members are allowed to stand for the 2nd Election. For instance, those who originally sttod for election by the Taluk, may be elected by other bodies and may not be willing to stand again at the reelection. I beg early orders being issued in the matter.

SUBJECT.

GPB—50,000—1-12-12

In his letter No. 15 of 9th July 1915 the Dysonn^r brought to notice that owing to certain defects in the notice of meeting issued by the Amildar of the Chikmagalur Tk. all the eligible Voters could not exercise their right of voting & requested that the election so imperfectly conducted by the Amildar might be invalidated. His request was complied with & he was requested to arrange for a fresh election.

The Dysonn^r has now sought instructions on the following points: with regard to the re-election

(1) Whether one month's notice should be given for the re-election meetings also.

(4) If so, whether he may himself scrutinize the Dasara Subjects of Chikmagalur Tk & send them up to Govt since it will not be possible to place them before the General Meeting for the whole District fixed for the 30th July 1915.

(3) Whether fresh candidates may be permitted to stand for the re-election in lieu of or in addition to those who already offered for the original election or the field of choice should be restricted to these latter only:-

(4) Whether all such candidates should be required to give one months notice of their intention

In the peculiar circumstances of the case, Govt are pleased to relax the Election Rules and authorize the Dy Comm to hold the re-election at as early a date as possible due notice of not less than a week being given of the date of the meeting, ~~individually~~, to each of the persons entitled to vote as well as to be elected.
